

LITTLE BOATS REAP HARVEST

Seven of Shore Seiners Made Good Tinker Hauls Yesterday in Barnstable Bay —Catch of the Cape Shore Fleet.

The fleet of little steamers struck a harvest down in Barnstable Bay Saturday and yesterday, seven of them and one sailing craft taking some good sized school of tinkers which were hustled to Boston and sold fresh to the dealers this morning.

The fish all ran large and are evidently part of the main body that has been sighted to the southward the past few days.

The arrivals in detail are:
Str. Philomena, 14,000 fresh tinkers.
Str. Orion, 10,000 fresh tinkers.
Str. Nashawena, 5000 fresh tinkers.
Str. Mary F. Ruth, 15,000 fresh tinkers.

The dealers paid $4.10 a hundred pounds for this morning's lot.
Heath's trap landed 10 barrels of tinkers at the Fort this morning which sold to A. Cooney & Co.

Good Hauls on Maine Coast.

All indications point to one of the best mackerel seasons known for many years. The fish have struck in shore all the way along the coast from Cape Cod to Eastport, immense quantities being caught in this vicinity. More than 30,000 fish, averaging near a pound each, were brought in Friday, most of them being taken out at the two cold storage plants on Central wharf, where they will be frozen for future consumption. From the Jordan trap at Richmond Island over 1,000 mackerel were taken and large quantities were also brought up from Harpswell. The fish are selling at very moderate prices and find a good market.

The Catch of the Cape Shore Fleet.
The total catch of the Cape Shore mackerel fleet as computed by Secretary Freeman of the Board of Trade, figures 425,500 fresh fish in count, or 8510 barrels and 1471 barrels of salt mackerel. Out of the fleet, 30 craft landed fish, the largest fare being that of sch. Saladin, Capt. John Matheson, with 25,000 fresh ones and 200 barrels of salt.

LOCAL CUSTOMS HEAD IS McKENZIE

Albert H. McKenzie, deputy collector at the custom house has been named by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department as deputy collector in charge of the Gloucester office, which beginning tomorrow morning becomes a part of the Boston office, in accordance with the reorganization of the customs service which goes into effect July 1.

Deputy McKenzie has received no official notification of his appointment, other than to receive the government property and accounts of Collector Walter F. Osborne, the retiring collector, who has resigned along with the other collectors who are legislated out of office by the act. The matter of resigning is only a matter of formality and in each instance have been accepted by the treasury department.

With the consolidation of the various ports, there will be but few changes. At those ports where the office of collector is abolished, the positions of the retiring collectors have been filled by the deputies now in office they being already under the classified civil service.

As organized, Massachusetts will constitute one customs district, with the collector at Boston in charge. It has been announced that Secretary McAdoo will probably name a successor to Collector Curtis, who has resigned, within a week or 10 days. No announcement of the salary which will be paid the deputy here has been made. The selection of Deputy McKenzie, needless to say, meets with general approval. He was appointed under Collector William H. Jordan, December, 1901, as deputy and has filled the position ever since, most acceptably and with credit. He is a member of Tyrian Lodge, A. F. & A. M., William Ferson Royal Arch Chapter, Bethlehem Commandery, K. T. and Gloucester Lodge of Elks.

His many friends are congratulating him upon his selection to take charge of the local office, which hereafter will be a sub-port of Boston.

GEORGESMEN HAD HALIBUT

Big Catches at Cape Breton.

Remarkable catches of fish are still being taken by the fishermen down North. So far as known Capt. John Dunphy is high-liner, he having caught within the space of four and a half days fish which he sold to Halifax parties for the sum of $500, or a little over $100 a day. The run of fish was never known to be so good, and in nearly every instance all the boats are doing a remarkable business. Last week large catches of mackerel and salmon were also made. The former sold to the dealers at 7 cents the pound, the principal buyers being dealers from here.—North Sydney Herald.

Two Gloucester handliners were at Portland Friday, the W. H. Moody coming from the Cape Shore with 8000 pounds of halibut and 10,000 pounds of salt cod, while the Mattie Winship hauled for 8400 pounds of halibut and 11,000 pounds of salt fish, the latter vessel having fished on Georges. Both schooners landed their halibut but will come home with their salt catch.
